FRIEND TO RESCUE GARNETT PRESIDES

Assistance of Officer M. F.
Cook Rescues Young Man from Difficulty.

C. C. Estes, a draftee from Pickens county, Ala., became involved in serious trouble just as he was about to be inducted into military service, having been arrested by local police less than 24 hours before the time which he had been ordered to report to the Pickens county exemption board at Carrollton to be sent to a training camp.

Young Estes had been ordered to report to the exemption board at Carrollton Friday morning, but on the previous day came to Columbus to make some purchases and to bid local friends adieu. He was accompanied by W. E. Pritchard, a friend, who lives in the same neighborhood, and while en route to Columbus, it is alleged, the two young men stopped at the house of a negro and there purchased a quart of whiskey. A party of officers, headed by Chief of Police John Morton, who had been out on the Pickensville road to arrest a negro for selling liquor, overtook the automobile occupied by Estes and Pritchard soon after it had reached the confines of the city, and after having searched the car and found the booze placed the young men under arrest.

Estes was exceedingly anxious to get back to Carrollton in time to report to the exemption board Friday morning, and through the efforts of Mr. M. M. Cook, a member of the local police force, who is a native of Pickens county, his desire was gratified. Officer Cook got in telephonic communication with Mr. J. M. Coleman, a prominent citizen of Pickens county, who came here and put up a forfeit of $50 for Estes, after which he whizzed him back to Carrollton in an automobile.

Mayor McClanahan went into an examination of the case Friday morning and fined Estes the $50 which had been posted. Pritchard, who owned the car, was also fined $50, and the final disposition of the vehicle, which was confiscated, will be decided upon at a special hearing which has been fixed for August 14.

RENZO PORTER RECEIVES IN-TERNAL INJURIES WHILE WORKING NEAR STEERS.

An accident which may prove serious to Renzo Porter, about 18 years of age, and a son of Mr. L. R. Porter, who resides several miles northeast of the city, occurred near Steers Friday afternoon. The young man was working on a log train of the Columbus Lumber Company and in an effort to untie a chain between two engines was badly crushed. The injured party was hurriedly brought to Columbus in Gunter Brothers' ambulance and taken to the Columbus Hospital.

At a meeting of public school trustees held Friday night Misses Ruth Senter and Minton Vandiver both of this city, were elected members of the faculty. They have not yet been assigned work, but will be placed in charge of grades at one of the grammar schools. There are still two existing vacancies in science and in modern languages at the Stephen D. Lee High School, which it will be necessary to fill later.

ROUSING MEETING HELD AT COURT HOUSE ON FRIDAY NIGHT

GARNETT PRESIDES

More Than Five Hundred Citizens Enrolled as Members of New Organization.

At an enthusiastic meeting which took place at the courthouse Friday night the Lowndes County Pat Harrison Club came into being and many prominent citizens who for years past have been steadfast supporters of Senator Vardaman joined the organization.

For some time past petitions inviting citizens to join the club had been in circulation and had been freely signed. Many who feared that they might not be able to attend the meeting attached their signatures to the petition and asked to be enrolled as members; but notwithstanding the extremely warm weather there was a fairly large crowd present.

The meeting was presided over by Hon. C. L. Garnett who was introduced by Hon. E. R. Sherman, chairman of the Lowndes County Democratic Executive Committee, and who delivered the keynote speech. Mr. Garnett began his address by paying a high tribute to President Wilson and then proceeded to compare the records of Senator Vardaman and Congressman Harrison. He said that he had no personal grudge against the junior senator and would not criticize him as an individual, but that his record in Congress was a public matter and therefore open to public criticism and condemnation. He said that this record had shown Senator Vardaman to be disloyal because he did not uphold the hands of the President in the crisis which the country now faces; while, on the other hand, Congressman Harrison had proved himself to be loyal to the core by supporting the administration and by doing everything in his power to help the United States and her allies to win the war.

Gen. E. T. Sykes delivered a vigorous speech in which he vehemently denied that Congressman Harrison was against the laboring men, as has been charged. He said that Mr. Harrison had always been a friend to the laboring classes and had done everything in his power to promote their interests.

Short talks were also made by Hon. F. C. Owen and Mr. Irvin Kaufman. The club starts out with a membership of about 500, which will be materially increased when lists that have been circulated in various sections of the county have been turned in.

Mr. Garnett was named as permanent chairman of the organization and there will also be district chairmen in the various rural neighborhoods throughout the county.

ALLEGED BOOZE VENDOR CAPTURED

GOODLY QUANTITY OF MOON-
HOME OF E. CUNNINGHAM.

A raiding party made up of Chief of Police John Morton, of this city, Lieutenant McClean, from Payne Field, near West Point, and Special Officer Frye, of the United States revenue department, searched the house of Elvin Cunningham, a negro, living about 12 miles southeast of Columbus, on the Pickensville road, Thursday and found therein two gallons and one quart of moonshine whiskey.

It has been rumored for some time that Payne Field fliers have been securing liquor from a still somewhere near Columbus, and officers received a tip to the effect that Cunningham was furnishing booze. In addition to the booze some evidence that Cunningham was operating a still was found, but Mr. Frye did not consider this evidence sufficient to warrant prosecution in the Federal court and the negro was turned over to state authorities.

Cunningham was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace G. D. McKellar yesterday morning and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and serve 30 days on the county farm.

For Wednesday, 14th, we offer a feature extraordinary, Norma Talmadge, in "Moth," a big modern society drama. Pick any day the coming week, and you can't go wrong, it is some program.

PIG CLUB MEMBERS RETURN.

College, having gone there to inspect the barns, dairies and other buildings and to see how a modern farm is operated. The young men were in charge of Mr. P. L. Wells, emergency demonstration agent for Lowndes, Clay and Oltibeha counties.

JOHNSTON TELLS OF LIFE IN FRANCE

WRITES INTERESTING LETTER TO HIS SISTER, MRS.
ELOISE BELL.

Mr. S. B. Johnston, who is now serving with the American Red Cross in France, has written the following interesting letter to his sister, Mrs. Eloise Bell, of this city.

Somewhere in France,
July 14th, 1918.

Dear Sister:
First, hoping you are well and happy. I am in best of health and gaining in weight and strength. It is almost cold—two heavy blankets for cover at night. We are busy at times and then have several days of simple routine work. I am located close up to the point to which I have always wanted to get, and am hopeful that in a few days I will be moved closer. We are to celebrate this evening at 7 o'clock. This day, you know, is the French 4th. There will be an elaborate banquet, lots of speeches and music, given by American officers to the French officers. The local Red Cross officers, of which there are three, are invited. I am going, of course.

I have made, in the line of our work, several trips to nearby towns. I see many unusual sights things I did not think possible and very sad they make me. All of this I can and will tell you when I come home. I am supposed to be here until October, then a vacation of a week. Everybody goes to Paris. No more Paris for me. The country if I can, if not the country then some small town, not a village. Why? I will tell you later. We are living at an officers' mess. We have plenty to eat. This mess will close in a few days, then my experience as a hunter will be of good use. Suppose you call up Mrs. Green and tell her I want a list of the Lowndes county boys who are over here, their company number as well as regiment, all definite and concise information that can be gotten without too much trouble. Send to me at Paris, care American Red Cross, plainly marked with instructions to forward to me, and address me as first lieutenant. (This not through vanity, but of necessity for definite identification.)

I have met officers of the army who know our people in Birmingham and one who has traveled over all of Mississippi, and after a short talk we concluded we knew each other in the States. I haven't had a word from anybody since I left New York, but am full of the hope that all is well. Was walking down a road yesterday with the chaplain. I met a negro. Asked, "Where do you hail from?" "Mississippi, boss." Think of it. We shook hands. We are in the midst of everything which war means. I have no sensation of fear, though I am careful. A church within 50 feet of our dugout had the front blown in four nights ago, done by long range gun. We are in plain view of a German stronghold. Bombing is regular. Yesterday, this is official, 1,160 shells were used in a sector of four miles square. The bombing by, and of, airplanes is constant day and night. As the moon grows larger we look for constant air raids.

Two days ago, one mile from

The Surgeon General of the United States Army the Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service, the American Red Cross, the General Medical Board, and the Woman's Committee, Council National Defense, have united in this appeal for student nurses and have joined their forces in a nation-wide campaign to recruit them, leaving to the State Divisions of the Woman's Committee, Council National Defense, through their local units, the duty of enrolling those who respond to the appeal.

Owing to an unavoidable delay in securing application blanks and instructions from Washington, this announcement is somewhat belated, but there is still ample time for anyone interested to join the band of patriotic women who have been enrolling all over the United States during the past ten days.

Congressman Candler arrived in Caledonia about 12 o'clock, having been accompanied by Captain T. H. Sharp and other local supporters. He was introduced by Dr. E. M. Jamison, a prominent citizen of the Caledonia neighborhood, and delivered a magnificent address.

Mr. Candler returned to Columbus immediately after having concluded his address at Caledonia, and at 8:30 o'clock last night spoke at a stand o'clock last night spoke at the courthouse, having been introduced by Dr. J. W. Lipscomb.

As is well known, not only in the district, but throughout the entire country, Mr. Candler has been a faithful supporter of President Wilson and his war policy, and his address was devoted largely to a resurvey of the stirring events which have taken place in Congress since the United States severed diplomatic relations with Germany. He paid a high tribute to President Wilson, declaring him to be the ablest man who has occupied the White House since the administration of George Washington.

Mr. Candler was heard by a large audience last night, and his eloquent remarks were greeted with frequent outbursts of enthusiastic applause.

Mrs. W. L. Dixon and little daughter, Louise, of Itta Bena, have returned home, after a delightful visit to Mrs. Dixon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Moore in this city.

CARES FOR FIGHTERS' FEET

Sergt. Maj. J. A. White, who is doing his bit serving as chiropodist with Uncle Sam's forces in France. The care of the lower extremities is of the utmost importance to the success of an army, and this expert sees to it that the feet of our fighting men are always in the "pink of condition."

OFFENSIVE IS EXTENDED ON ENTIRE LINE SOUTH-EAST OF MONTDIDIER

11 VILLAGES TAKEN

300 Cannon Also Captured;
German Base at Ham Now
Under Fire.

Somewhere in France, Aug. 10.—The German retreat continues over the whole 30 mile front from the Ancre to the zone just south of Montdidier.

Unofficial advices from the front said that allied troops had already entered Montdidier. That the city had been "pocketed" was shown by the French war office at noon when it announced that advanced elements had reached Favorelles, three miles east of Montdidier.

Vast numbers of German prisoners are being taken. The British war office today put the number at more than 30,000 and the captives are still streaming in.

News that the Americans are fighting with the British in the new counter-offensive came through official channels today for the first time.

Paper at Payne Field.

Fliers at Payne Field, near West Point, are preparing to launch a weekly paper devoted to news of the field and kindred subjects, the first issue of which is scheduled to make its appearance Wednesday August 21. The publication will be known as the Payne Field Zooms and will be in charge of experienced newspaper men. Lieut. J. I. Lawrence, who was formerly a member of the editorial staff of the Top Notch Magazine, will be editor in chief, while Cadet J. E. Elam, of Buttercutt, Wis., will be business manager, and Sergeant George W. Cox, of Joplin, Mo., who is an experienced linotype operator, will be make-up editor.

Cadet Elam and Lieut. Cox were here yesterday for the purpose of inviting bids from local publishing houses, and it is probable that the paper will be printed here, as there are several plants in Columbus which are well equipped to handle work of this character.
